Hello Braves And Dads . . .

Today Bowling Green State University is happy to put out the welcome mat to a new BG football opponent, Bradley University of Peoria, Illinois, and to the many dads of students here today to help celebrate this annual autumn occasion, Dad's Day.

This is the first gridiron meeting between the two schools. In fact this is the first scheduled event of any kind for BU and BG. The schools participated in the 1949 National Invitational cage tournament in Madison Square Garden, but both were unfortunate to lose in the semi-finals. Therefore, the consolation game saw the Braves and Falcons fighting for third place honors. Harold Anderson's BG quintet won out 82 to 77.

However, the Braves are here today with one of the outstanding football teams of Bradley history. Coach Art Bergstrom already has watched his warriors chalk up 90 points in winning over Ripon, 33 to 0 and last week waltz over Colorado (Adams) State College 57 to 0 to remain one of the nation's teams with their own goal unscathed.

Bradley joined the Missouri Valley Conference in 1948 and Bergstrom, who took over the gridiron reigns then, has been building his own pigskin parade at Peoria to cope with the other MV powers, Drake, Tulsa, Wichita, Detroit and Oklahoma A & M.

But this season looks like one of winning ways for the Braves. Bergstrom has his T-formation attack built around three sophomore backs and another trio of first year linemen. Bobby Watson, a 5-9 155-pound quarterback runs the attack and provides the Braves with a passer deluxe for two fine ends, John Wilson and Bill Tuttle. Tuttle is one of the leading scorers in the Conference with 18 points.

But Gerald Stamp is leading the Brave scoring parade with 21 points. Last year Stamp was second in the nation in kicking field goals with three. Already this season the senior quarterback has booted five field goals and nine extra points.

Other Brave standouts include Gerald Jacobs and Walt Ingram in the backfield. On the line Ralph Barclay, a 254-pound tackle; Bill Bushell, a hard charging guard; Tom Timmis, recently moved from end to guard, and Arnold Van Etten, an offensive end and pass defense specialist, led the Bradley attack.

Alpha Tau Omega Sponsors Dad's Day . . .

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity again is sponsoring the Dad's Day program. The fraternity revived this annual event in 1947 after the five year war time lapse.

At halftime the ATOs have delegated President Frank J. Prout to award a trophy to "the football dad of 1951." Last year fullback Jack Woodland's father won the coveted award.

The sponsoring organization entertained the BG squad and their fathers this morning at the Commons with a pre-game banquet.

Other campus organizations are holding open house for the visiting parents today.

Walter Nachtigall, Berea, and Hart Hursh, Harrisburg, Penna., are co-chairmen of the Dad's Day program.

Hats off to the BG Dads and the ATOs.

Homecoming Next Home Game . . .

The Falcons go on the road next week, traveling to Mount Pleasant, Michigan to tangle with Central Michigan. Last year BG won over the Chippewas 20 to 0, but with new Coach Warren Schmakel holding the reigns the Michiganders will be a stiff foe.

Two weeks from today Baldwin-Wallace invades the University field for the 14th BG-Yellow Jacket meeting. Two years ago these two squads played one of the most exciting games on this field when BG took a 33-28 decision. Last year the Jackets won out 34-21. Coach Whittaker promises another interesting contest for the many returning alumni.

Brave Briefs . . .

RALPH BARCLAY—This is the "Bradley Bulldozer," a 5-11, 245-pound junior tackle and guard from Macomb, Ill., who received honorable mention for the Missouri Valley conference all-star team as a sophomore last fall. Nicknamed Tiny, Barclay is as tough as they come, fast and agile for his size. Will play tackle on offense and guard on defense and is a definite contender for Missouri Valley honors.

ARNOLD VAN ETTEN—A brilliant, all-around performer, Arnold Van Etten is All-Missouri Valley conference timber. A 6-1, 190-pound junior end from Havana, Ill., Van Etten caught one pass last week for a 21-yard gain. But it's defense where he shines most as a linebacker.

BILL URBAN—Named to the third Little All-America junior college team last season, Urban came to Bradley from LaSalle-Peru junior college. A 5-11, 170-pound junior right halfback who missed opening game because of a leg injury.

BILL BUSHELL—Bradley's regular fullback for two years, this 5-10, 200-pounder from Lincoln, Ill., was moved to guard this season. He will specialize on defense. A 1946 Illinois high school all-stater, he received honorable mention for the All-Missouri Valley team last season. A junior.

WALT INGRAM—Another of Bradley's potential stars from Springfield Lanphier high school. Probably the brightest of last year's freshman stars, Ingram is a 6-1, 188-pound left halfback. Bradley fans hope he follows in the footsteps of Ray Ramsey and Billy Stone, both of whom came to Bradley from Lanphier and starred for the Braves before going into professional ball. Ingram was the top ball carrier on last year's frosh squad.

GERALD STAMP—Buck was the nation's second leading field goal kicker last season, booting three. He also authors booming kickoffs and does some punting. Used mostly on defense in the past, he'll be a strong contender for the quarterback post this fall because of his ability as a passer. A 5-10, 150-pound senior from Clinton, Ia.

BOB WATSON—This ex-Pekin, Ill., high school star is a brilliant all-around athlete. A smart, sharp quarterback he stands 5-9 and weighs 155 pounds. Performed brilliantly in spring drills and seems to have the inside track for starting quarterback post. A fine passer and extremely rugged for his size. A sophomore.

BILL TUTTLE—Bradley's star center fielder in baseball, Bill Tuttle is a top-notch pass catcher on the gridiron. He gathered in two touchdown passes in the Braves' 29-7 victory over St. Louis U. last season. A 5-11, 175-pound senior end from Farmington.

BG's Four Milers . . .

DAVE MATTHEWS

John Carroll invades Bee Gee Tuesday, Oct. 10, for the home opener of what should be the best team in recent Falcon history. Frank Kilgore, Lee Pate, Bruce Oliver, and Bob Mickets are a quintet of returning lettermen that spell trouble for BG opponents.

Up from the frosh squad have come Marv Crosten and Larry Hall to bolster the lettermen. Nelson Detwiler, slated to be the seventh man in the lineup, was called to active duty by the Marines early this week.

Two more foes come here for home meets, Ball State appearing Oct. 24 and Michigan Normal coming Oct. 28. U. of Michigan will play host to the Falcons at Ann Arbor, Nov. 1.

The schedule: October 10—John Carroll; 13—at Baldwin-Wallace; 20—at Wayne; 24—Ball State; 28—Michigan Normal. November 1—at Michigan; 10—at Ohio Wesleyan; 18—Central Collegiates at Ypsilanti; 20—National Collegiates at East Lansing.

Bowling Green's other fall varsity sport got underway last Tuesday when the Falcon cross country squad defeated Albion's distance runners on the loser's course.

Coach Dave Matthews' harriers have embarked on their most ambitious schedule, meeting seven more foes, including the University of Michigan, and competing in the Central and National Collegiate Meets.

RESEARCH

Raw materials are dead things. It is the men of science who bring raw materials to life.

Scientists, with experience, vision, inspiration, and ability, not only assure purity of materials in today's merchandise, but blaze new trails in production. They find better ways to use today's materials in tomorrow's products; they find better materials; they salvage by-products and waste, previously discarded, for new profitable uses.

Research advances through its own accomplishments, but the effectiveness of research can be advanced ten years, twenty years, or more, in one forward step, by complete modernization of the tools with which research works.
